JUDGMENT: (per the Hon’ble, the Chief Justice) (Oral)

In the ordinary course of things, this is not a public interest litigation but if one has a close look at the facts and the surrounding state of affairs, significant public interest seems to be involved.

The subject-matter of dispute is a Mawjymbuin cave in Mawsynram, East Khasi Hills District. There is a stone configuration there. The petitioner and a section of the local Khasi tribe supporting him believe that this is “Shiva Linga” or the deity Shiva of the Hindu religion. The cave has acquired substantial religious importance. There is no dispute that hundreds of devotees visit this cave to offer “puja”.

There was execution and registration of a document dated 14th May, 2015 before the Joint Registrar of Societies, East Khasi Hills District, Shillong, Meghalaya by the Syiem of Mawsynram and Dorbar and Shri Amossingstar Syiem Malngiang, Syiem of Mawsynram, Mawsynram Syiemship allegedly conveying the above property to the Seng Khasi Hima Mawsynram, Mawsynram Syiemship which was established at that place on 25th February, 2012. There is a claim of non-Hindu tribes over the selfsame property.

Now, it appears that the vendors have instituted a suit before the court of the learned Judge, District Council Court, Khasi Hills, Shillong, inter alia, claiming a declaration that the agreement dated 14th May, 2015 is non est and void and for consequent protective orders with regard to the said religious property. It is alleged that there was no transfer of this property.

The petitioner appearing in person cited the judgment of the Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No.6673 of 2014 – Satya Pal Anand v. State of M.P. & ors decided on 26th October, 2016 to contend that the District Council Court had no power to entertain, try and determine the suit in question. He also cited Khasi Hills Autonomous District Council v. State of Meghalaya & ors decided by the same Court on 12th February, 2016.

We fail to understand how either of the two cases has any relevance to the case of the petitioner. The first judgment only said that once the registering authority had registered a document, it had no power to cancel it (see paragraph 28 of the judgment).

On the second decision, headmen in the areas in Meghalaya covered by Schedule Six of the Constitution were allowed to continue.

On the other hand, Dr. Mozika, learned Deputy Solicitor General appearing for the Union of India has shown us sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 4 of Schedule Six to the Constitution of India enacted under Articles 244 (2) and 275 (1) thereof. He said that only the District Council Court was vested with the power to try suits and cases involving scheduled tribes.

Apart from this, we are told that there is a writ petition [WP (C) No.275 of 2024] pending before the learned single judge of this Court. Although, the petitioner is not the same, the issue involved is similar. The learned judge, we are told has formed a Committee to inquire into and resolve the issue involved.

We think it fit and proper that this public interest litigation is referred to the learned single judge in WP (C) No.275 of 2024. We order accordingly. Since religious land and religious sentiments are involved, his lordship is requested to make an effort to resolve the matter amicably through mediation/settlement.

The petitioner in this PIL is added as a party in that writ petition [WP (C) No.275 of 2024]. The Registry is to effect the necessary amendment in the cause title within one week from date. A copy of the amended cause title may be circulated to all the parties in that litigation.

Alternatively, we suggest that in case of failure of mediated settlement, the learned judge may refer the subject-matter of this PIL, to the District Council Court in the said suit filed by the vendors of the said property before it. The question whether the District Council Court has jurisdiction or not, may be directed to be tried as a preliminary issue and if the District Council Court comes to the conclusion that it has jurisdiction, it shall continue to hear the matter.

Till the writ petition [WP (C) No.275 of 2024] is disposed of, the District Council Court shall only proceed to pass any interim order in the said suit after leave is taken by any interested party from the learned single judge.

With the above observations, this PIL is disposed of.
